

E.F.C.C.A. English Youth

Sunday 9 July, 9.30 A.M.

Weekly Text

‘And... as Jesus was reclining at table, a woman came with an alabaster jug of ointment of pure nard, a very expensive perfume, and she broke the jug and poured it over his head. There were some who said to themselves indignantly, “Why was the ointment wasted like that? For this ointment could have been sold for more than three hundred denarii and given to the poor.” And they scolded her. But Jesus said, “Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a beautiful thing to me. For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want, you can do good for them. But you will not always have me.”’ (Mark 14.3–7)
