Sunday 10 September, 9.30 A.M.

Weekly Text

And Jacob was left alone. And a man wrestled with him until the breaking of the day. When the man saw that he did not prevail against Jacob, he touched his hip socket, and Jacob's hip was put out of joint as he wrestled with him. Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day has broken.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go unless you bless me.' And he said to him, 'What is your name?' And he said, 'Jacob.' Then he said, 'Your name shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with men, and have prevailed.'

Notices

1. Welcome to those of you who are new visitors or returning after a long time away. Welcome home.
2. Please pray for all students and pupils who are sitting exams and assessments.
3. Our church is running a fun holiday programme for 5- to 12-year-olds in this second week of the holidays. It's free as part of our church's charitable outreach to our community, and can't run without volunteers. If you're interested in volunteering to help with or lead the children in their activities, please find Emily Yang's mum.
4. We will now have a meeting to plan for future Sundays and Friday fellowships. The meeting is for the whole congregation, not just those currently rostered for duties, as I believe you all deserve to know what changes there will be.
