Weekly Text

But understand this, that in the last days there will come times of difficulty. For people will be lovers of self, lovers of money, proud, arrogant, abusive, disobedient to their parents, ungrateful, unholy, heartless, unappeasable, slanderous, without self-control, brutal, not loving good, treacherous, reckless, swollen with conceit, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God, having the appearance of godliness, but denying its power. Avoid such people.

Notices

1. Our church is running a holiday programme for 5- to 12-year-olds in this second week of the holidays. It's free as part of our church's charitable outreach, and can't run without volunteers. If you'd like to spend your holiday in a meaningful way that gives back to our community, by helping the children in their activities (lunch will be provided on the days you volunteer), please find Emily Yang's mum.
2. Watch out for changes to the roster: for smoother transitions, the scripture will be read by the worship leader, and someone else will be rostered to read the psalm at the beginning. Also, please let Wilson's dad know if you're available for the worship team in October.
3. Please remember to clean up after yourselves, especially if you've been eating or drinking in here, and don't leave anything lying around. I'm sure your parents wouldn't like you treating your own home that way, so why would you treat God's house with any less respect?
