Weekly Text

And the angel of the Lord called to Abraham a second time from heaven and said, 'By myself I have sworn, declares the Lord, because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son, I will surely bless you, and I will surely multiply your offspring as the stars of heaven and as the sand that is on the seashore. And your offspring shall possess the gate of his enemies, and in your offspring shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because you have obeyed my voice.' (Genesis 22.15–18)

Notices

1. Remember to wish a happy Fathers' Day to your dad, and do something to show him your gratitude, in thanks for our heavenly Father who is the origin and model for all fatherhood.
2. We will be celebrating Holy Communion next Sunday. Communion represents the friendship which Christ established between God and man by shedding his blood. It is right, then, that we prepare ourselves to approach the Lord's Table during this week, by turning away from bad habits and taking the initiative to mend any difficult or damaged relationships in our lives.
3. Our church is running a fun holiday programme for 5- to 12-year-olds in this second week of the holidays. It's free as part of our church's charitable outreach to our community, and can't run without volunteers. If you're interested in volunteering to help with or lead the children in their activities, Emily Yang's mum is here to tell us about it.
