

E.F.C.C.A. English Youth

Sunday 20 October 2024, 9.30 A.M.

Today's Scripture

We know that 'We all possess knowledge.' But knowledge puffs up while love builds up. Those who think they know something do not yet know as they ought to know. But whoever loves God is known by God.

Be careful, however, that the exercise of your rights does not become a stumbling block to the weak... So this weak brother or sister, for whom Christ died, is destroyed by your knowledge. When you sin against them in this way and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ. Therefore, if what I eat causes my brother or sister to fall into sin, I will never eat meat again, so that I will not cause them to fall. (I Corinthians 8.1–3, 9, 11–13)

Sermon Outline:

1. Knowledge of the truth is not enough to build others up! (I Corinth. 8.1–8)
2. For the sake of Christ, I am willing to limit my freedom and give up my rights (vv. 9–13).

Questions to think about:

1. Why isn't knowledge of the truth enough to build others up?
2. How does Jesus Christ embody both truth and grace?
3. What would happen if we only had truth without love? Also, what would happen if we only had love without truth?
4. How can Christians be like what Martin Luther says: a perfectly free lord of all, subject to none, and at the same time a dutiful servant of all, subject to all?

Notices

1. At Friday fellowship, we will continue the series on friendship. Mike Lu will lead and share about strengthening friendships. Don't miss out; there is something to learn from every session!
2. We're holding a worship meeting after this service.
