Today's Scripture

And the mind of the king of Syria was greatly troubled because of this thing, and he called his servants and said to them, 'Will you not show me who of us is for the king of Israel?' And one of his servants said, "None, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedroom.' And he said, 'Go and see where he is, that I may send and seize him.' It was told him, 'Behold, he is in Dothan.' So he sent there horses and chariots and a great army, and they came by night and surrounded the city.

When the servant of the man of God rose early in the morning and went out, behold, an army with horses and chariots was all around the city. And the servant said, 'Alas, my master! What shall we do?' He said, 'Do not be afraid, for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.' Then Elisha prayed and said, 'O Lord, please open his eyes that he may see.' So the Lord opened the eyes of the young man, and he saw, and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire all around Elisha.

Sermon Outline:

1. We often rely on our past successes, which leads us to restrict how God helps us with our current problems (II Kings 6.8–15).
2. The key to seeing God's protection and provision surrounding us is to turn our focus and attention back to God (vv. 16–17).

Questions to think about:

1. Do I feel disappointed when God answers my problems differently from how he has in the past?
2. Do I often restrict / limit how God helps me?
3. Why does God often help us in unexpected ways?

Notices

1. The E.F.C.C.A. youth would once again like to thank Billy and Cindy for looking after the entire English Congregation for over a year. It has been such a blessing and privilege to have them lead us.
2. Starting with Fellowship on the upcoming Friday at 7.30, we shall begin our Friendship Sessions. It will be a lot of fun and very interesting! Don't miss it!
