Scriptures

Now as they went on their way, Jesus entered a village. And a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who sat at the Lord's feet and listened to his teaching. But Martha was distracted with much serving. And she went up to him and said, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her then to help me.' But the Lord answered her, 'Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things, but one thing is necessary. Mary has chosen the good portion, which will not be taken away from her.'

Sermon Outline:

1. Often, it is not the task itself that burdens us; instead, it is our attention which has drifted away from God that makes our task or work burdensome (Luke 10.38–40).
2. Listening to what God has done for us comes before what we do for God (vv. 41–42).

Discussion Questions:

1. Listening to what God has done for us comes before ‘doing things for God.’ Why?
2. When do I often start to lose my passion for serving God?
3. What is it that God wants us to listen to before serving Him?
4. What was the main issue that Martha had when she served Jesus?

Notices

1. At this coming Friday’s fellowship, we will talk about gossip. We’ll explore the reasons why we like to gossip and how gossip can wreck and ruin friendships. Amber will be leading the icebreaker game!
2. After today’s service, we’ll use the band practice time to rehearse for the Christmas performance. Please stay for the practice if you are participating in the performance.
