Scriptures

Where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in the depths, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. If I say, 'Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light about me be night,' even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is bright as the day, for darkness is as light with you. (Psalm 139.7–12)

Sermon Outline:

1. When God is present with us, His care for us touches everywhere, every aspect and every detail of our lives. (Psalm 139.7–8).
2. When God is present with us, He guides and supports us to walk in His righteousness (vv. 9–10).
3. When God is present with us, nothing can separate us from His love (vv. 11–12).

Questions to think about:

1. When God is present with us, how does His presence make a difference in our lives?
2. Have you ever experienced that what we forget to consider, God has already considered for us? Or that what we are lacking, He makes up for?
3. Have you experienced that, when God is present with us, He guides and supports us to walk in His righteousness?
4. What does it mean that nothing can separate us from God's love? Have you ever experienced this before?

Notices

1. Thank you, Cici, for leading the wonderful game at the last Friday fellowship of the year.
2. Friday fellowship will take a break from 13 December to 3 January, as many of us will be returning to our home countries or travelling abroad during this time. This four-week break will also give us an opportunity to spend more quality time with family and friends.
3. Everyone who'll be here for Christmas Eve is encouraged to join our rehearsals for the Christmas performance, which continue after this service.
