Scriptures

“Again, it will be like a man going on a journey, who called his servants and entrusted his wealth to them. To one he gave five bags of gold, to another two bags, and to another one bag, each according to his ability. Then he went on his journey. The man who had received five bags of gold went at once and put his money to work and gained five bags more. So also, the one with two bags of gold gained two more. But the man who had received one bag went off, dug a hole in the ground and hid his master’s money. “After a long time the master of those servants returned and settled accounts with them. Sermon Outline:

1. We must keep in mind that our God is a master who is gracious and generous.
(vv.14-23)
2. The wicked and lazy servant failed to work for his master's benefit due to his misunderstanding of his master. (vv.24-30)

Questions to think about:

1. What is your understanding of the master to whom we are accountable?
2. What does Satan want us to believe about our master? Why?
3. Where in today's scripture can you see that the master is gracious and generous?
4. On what basis does the master reward his servants?

Notice:

Our Friday fellowship will begin this coming Friday (the 10th of January). Daniel will lead the icebreaker, and Gabriel will share about his mission trip to Taiwan. There'll be lots of fun and lots to learn!
