Scripture

There he came to a cave and lodged in it.... And behold, the Lord passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains and broke in pieces the rocks before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake. And after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire the sound of a low whisper. And when Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his cloak and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. And behold, there came a voice to him and said, 'What are you doing here, Elijah?' He said, 'I have been very jealous for the Lord, the God of hosts. For the people of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword, and I, even I only, am left, and they seek my life, to take it away.' And the Lord said to him, 'Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus.... Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.' (I Kings 19.9–15, 18)

Sermon Outline:

1. Often, our great disappointment with God comes from expecting God to reveal Himself through significant visible changes and movements. (I Kings 19.1–8)
2. Even if there's no obvious sign of God's movement, God is always at work (verses 9–14).
3. God's work never stops (verses 15–18).

Questions to think about:

1. What has been your greatest disappointment with God?
2. How do you see God working in your life? Is God's work always visible or obvious?
3. How do you maintain faith in God during seasons when His work isn't visible or obvious?
4. Have you ever experienced a quiet season of God working in your life?
