Sunday 1 June 2025, 9.30 A.M.

Scripture

‘But God said to him, “You fool! This very night your life will be demanded from you. Then who will get what you have prepared for yourself?” This is what happens to people who store up everything for themselves, but are poor in the sight of God.’ (Luke 12.20–21)

Sermon Outline:

1. We often try to secure our future through what we own. (Luke 12.13-15)
2. No matter how much we own, it will never be enough to secure our life (verses 16–19).
3. Our attention should be on whether our lives are owned by God today (verses 20–21).

Discussion Questions:

1. What are we trying to use to secure our future?
2. Do you find that no matter how much you try to own, you still don't feel secure about the future?
3. Do we often pay attention only to tomorrow and neglect how we are today?

Notices

1. This coming Friday, Mike Lu will lead us to explore the worldview of pantheism. Sarah will lead the icebreaker.
2. We welcome all university students to stay for our fellowship at 12 p.m.
3. Please don't put any water bottles or cups on our new digital piano, and take good care of our new facilities.
4. You're welcome stay for band practice after this service.
