Sunday 18 May 2025, 9.30 A.M.

Scripture

‘Will any one of you who has a servant ploughing or keeping sheep say to him when he has come in from the field, “Come at once and recline at table”? Will he not rather say to him, “Prepare supper for me, then put on your apron and serve me while I eat and drink, and afterward you will eat and drink”? Does he thank the servant because he did what was commanded? So you also, when you have done all that you were commanded, say, “We are unprofitable servants; we have only done what was our duty.”’ (Luke 17.7–10)

Sermon Outline:

1. God owes us nothing – everything we have is a gift of His grace and mercy, not a reward ‘earned’ with our good behaviour.
2. We should never think we’ve done ‘enough’ for God – even when we’ve done well, we must stay humble and keep growing: there’s no room for spiritual laziness or pride.
3. Following Jesus means continual growth and self-discipline, demanding daily effort – true discipleship means quietly choosing obedience every day: we must keep pressing forward, not relax or go with the flow.

Questions to think about:

1. Have you ever felt like you’ve ‘done enough’ to serve God? What are some dangers of thinking that way?
2. What are some small, daily ways you can show faithful obedience to Jesus this week, even when you don’t feel like it?
3. What’s one thing you can do to take a step forward in your walk with Jesus this week, rather than just ‘going with the flow’?

Notices

1. Next week, we’ll talk about what a worldview is. Every religion or ideology has its own worldview.
2. Please stay for band practice after the service.
3. Our university fellowship is going on an outing at 12 p.m.
4. Next Sunday we’ll have a short worship meeting, followed by our discipleship course led by Blandon.
