Scripture

Why do you see the speck that is in your brother's eye, but do not notice the log that is in your own eye? Or how can you say to your brother, 'Let me take the speck out of your eye,' when there is the log in your own eye? You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother's eye. (Matthew 7.3–5)

And the world is passing away along with its desires, but whoever does the will of God abides forever. (I John 2.17)

Sermon Outline:

1. We are often blind to our own sin, while sharply aware of others' faults.
2. The world and its desires will pass away, but God calls us to endure by doing His will—starting with ourselves.
3. True humility means quietly taking responsibility for our own growth, not pretending to be saviours of others or the planet.

Questions to think about:

1. Why do you think it's so tempting to focus on other people's faults instead of our own? Can you think of a time when you did this?
2. What does it look like in daily life to 'do the will of God' instead of chasing the world's desires?
3. Are there any ways you've tried to 'fix the world' or others before letting God deal with your own heart first? What would repentance look like for you now?

Notices

1. This coming Friday, we'll explore the topic of truth. What is truth? How do we know it's true? How do we know that what we believe is true? Vuitton will be leading the icebreaker game.
2. Please stay for band practice after this service!
3. Annual General Meeting follows the service upstairs. If you're an enrolled member of this congregation, you need to attend and vote.
4. University fellowship at 12: all university students and those interested in participating are very welcome to join us.
