Scripture

In the course of time Cain brought to the Lord an offering of the fruit of the ground, and Abel also brought of the firstborn of his flock and of their fat portions. And the Lord had regard for Abel and his offering, but for Cain and his offering he had no regard. So Cain was very angry, and his face fell. The Lord said to Cain, 'Why are you angry, and why has your face fallen? If you do well, will you not be accepted? And if you do not do well, sin is crouching at the door. Its desire is contrary to you, but you must rule over it'.... And when they were in the field, Cain rose up against his brother Abel and killed him. Then the Lord said to Cain, 'Where is Abel your brother?' He said, 'I do not know; am I my brother's keeper?' (Genesis 4.3–9)

Sermon Outline:

1. Fairness: Life isn't always fair
2. Jealousy: The silent killer of relationships
3. Peace: Begins with knowing the grace-giving God

Discussion Questions:

1. Can you think of a time when you felt life was unfair? How did you respond to that situation?
2. Have you ever felt jealous of someone? What triggered it? What helps you deal with jealousy in a healthy way?
3. Who is the one person you struggle to get along with? Ask God to show you how to see them through His eyes of grace.

Notices

1. Thank you Pastor Amy for coming from Evangelical Formosan North Harbour Church to preach to us. We really appreciate her message today. May God bless all her current ministries.
2. Friday Fellowship and Daily Devotion take a break for the following three weeks. During this recess, may we spend more time with our family and also some quiet time with God.
3. We welcome all university students to stay for the fellowship at 12 p.m. Gabriel is leading today: please pray for him as he's been unwell.
