Scripture

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, rejoice. Let your reasonableness be known to everyone. The Lord is at hand; do not be anxious about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Sermon Outline:

1. We can always rejoice because our joy depends on who God is, not on our circumstances! (Philippians 4.4)
2. When our joy depends on who God is, it leads to outward peace. (verse 5)
3. When our joy depends on who God is, it also leads to inward peace (v. 6–7).

Discussion Questions:

1. Where does our happiness normally come from?
2. What are the differences between happiness and the joy that comes from God?
3. Why does God tell us not to be anxious about anything, but instead, in every situation, to follow the threefold steps of prayer, petition, and thanksgiving?

Notices

1. Mike Lu will be leading next Friday's fellowship. We'll be exploring the topic of the universe and breaking into smaller groups for discussion.
2. University fellowship follows at 12 p.m. Wilson will lead the group discussion, and Cecilia will lead the icebreaker.
3. Lastly, we have arranged for one of you to post the weekly devotion each week. Please check the roster!
