Fear not, for you will not be put to shame; And do not feel humiliated, for you will not be disgraced; But you will forget the shame of your youth, And no longer remember the disgrace of your widowhood. (Isaiah 54.4)

Sermon Outline:

1. God promises to take away our shame and disgrace forever.
2. In Jesus, our past mistakes do not define us.
3. God's love replaces shame with joy, dignity, and hope.

Discussion Questions:

1. How can believing God's promise to remove shame change the way we see ourselves?
2. Why is it hard to forget past mistakes, even when God forgives us?
3. What are some ways we can help others know that their shame can be taken away in Christ?

Notices

1. At next Friday's fellowship, we'll explore the topic of morality—how objective morality points to a moral lawgiver. Emily will be leading the icebreaker.
2. University fellowship at 12 p.m.: Gabriel will lead today's group discussion.
