Scripture

‘Therefore I tell you, do not be anxious about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, nor about your body, what you will put on. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air: they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And which of you by being anxious can add a single hour to his span of life? And why are you anxious about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.... Therefore do not be anxious, saying, “What shall we eat?” or “What shall we drink?” or “What shall we wear?” For the Gentiles seek after all these things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.’

Sermon Outline:

1. God values the life of His creation; therefore, His provision for it is certain (Matthew 6.25–30).
2. God is our heavenly Father; therefore, He surely provides for our needs. Knowing this transforms the priorities of our lives (verses 31–33).
3. Not worrying means trusting God every day (verse 34).

Discussion Questions:

1. Why does God provide for us?
2. Why do you think life is more important than food and clothes?
3. Why do you think we can first seek God's kingdom and His righteousness?

Notices

1. Friday youth fellowship will begin with pizza at 6.30 p.m.—come join us! Also, Mike Lu will share a special topic, a Christian view on video gaming.
2. Combined service upstairs next Sunday, followed by our congregational meeting. Attendance at the meeting is compulsory for all baptized congregation members aged 18 or above, who have attended Sunday worship no fewer than seven times in the past three months (not including absences due to leave or unavoidable reasons).
3. Please stay for band practice after this service. We are going to practise Living Hope, the response song for next Sunday's combined service.
