Scripture

When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. And they were saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance of the tomb?' And looking up, they saw that the stone had been rolled back—it was very large. And entering the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were alarmed. And he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen; he is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going before you to Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.' And they went out and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had seized them, and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Sermon Outline:

1. The meaninglessness of life for youth, worldwide, in our secular age. Their longing for peace in the midst of stress, and joy in the midst of uncertainty and fear.
2. The shock of the women at the empty tomb (Mark 16.1–8).
3. Three unique appearances of the risen Jesus on the Day of his Resurrection (verses 9–14).
4. Stories of people who have met the risen Christ:
  - a) Kamila of Dagestan, North Caucasus, in a dream
  - b) Ahmed Joktan of Saudi Arabia at the Baptist Tabernacle, Auckland.
5. The message of Jesus Christ for us today: Expect miracles (verses 15–20).

Discussion Questions:

1. What is the hope you have for tomorrow?
2. What does the resurrection of Jesus mean to you? What hope does it bring to you?
3. After hearing the stories of people who have met the risen Christ, what stands out to you most?

Notices

1. Combined service upstairs next Sunday. Pastor David's (董家驛) sermon will be translated into English for your benefit.
2. Students are welcome to join our university fellowship for their outing after this service.
