

E.F.C.C.A. English Youth

Sunday 26 April 2026, 9.30 A.M.

Scripture

Devote yourselves to prayer, being watchful and thankful. And pray for us, too, that God may open a door for our message, so that we may proclaim the mystery of Christ, for which I am in chains. Pray that I may proclaim it clearly, as I should. Be wise in the way you act toward outsiders; make the most of every opportunity. Let your conversation be always full of grace, seasoned with salt, so that you may know how to answer everyone.

Sermon Outline:

1. Speaking to God about people (vv. 2-4)
2. Speaking to people about God (vv. 5-6)

Discussion Questions:

a. Consider your own prayer life:

1. Do you have a regular rhythm of prayer? What helps you most (or could help you) in your prayer life?
2. How much of your prayer time is spent "speaking to God about people", especially for the spiritual needs of others? How can you remember to do this?
3. Do you have an example of answered prayer that might encourage others?

b. Consider your relationships with friends and family:

1. How comfortable are you with talking about God / faith / the gospel?
2. How would you feel talking to a non-believing friend about God? If you've tried this before, how did it go?
3. Is there one friend or opportunity that you could be praying for, that God might open a door for the good news of Jesus to be received? Ask God for wisdom, courage, and creativity!

Family Notices

1. Thank you, Pastor Josh, for coming to share the sermon with us. May God bless his family and ministry.
2. Next Friday, we'll talk about relationality. Why is relationship so important to us? Why do we need relationships with people?
3. After the service, all university students, please stay for the university fellowship.
