Sunday 24 May 2026, 9.30 A.M.

Scripture

‘But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you. To one who strikes you on the cheek, offer the other also, and from one who takes away your cloak do not withhold your tunic either. Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back. And as you wish that others would do to you, do so to them. If you love those who love you, what benefit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them. (Luke 6.27–32)

Sermon Outline:

1. Bible Engagement: The Bible is not merely an answer book for life's problems, but a witness that invites us to see and participate in God's transforming act in our world. It is the Word of God.
2. The Word of God Reveals the Living Kingdom of God—and then how God is acting for and with you now!
3. This passage is not primarily about how individuals should respond when personally insulted. Rather, it is about preparing the people of God's kingdom to bear witness to His kingdom in a broken world through a radical kind of love — a love that comes with a great cost, the cost of sacrifice.
4. The Word of God Reveals Jesus the Living King.
5. So What? How can we demonstrate this radical life to witness the Kingdom?

Discussion Questions:

1. How do we approach Scripture?
2. How can Jesus really empower us to live out this radical love in our world?
3. How can we demonstrate this radical life to witness the Kingdom?

Family Notices

1. Friday cell groups continue next week. We'll continue exploring the Book of Hebrews or the book of life with Jesus.
2. University fellowship outdoor activity to follow this service.
