Sunday 28 June 2026, 9.30 A.M.

Scripture

Now the serpent was more crafty than any other beast of the field that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, ‘Did God actually say, ‘You shall not eat of any tree in the garden?’?’ And the woman said to the serpent, ‘We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden, but God said, ‘You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the midst of the garden, neither shall you touch it, lest you die.’” But the serpent said to the woman, ‘You will not surely die. For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.’

(Genesis 3.1–5)

Sermon Outline:

Move 1 — The temptation (Gen 3.1–6)

Move 2 — The aftermath: shame, hiding, blame (Gen 3.7–13)

Move 3 — God comes looking (Gen 3.8–9)

Move 4 — Even in judgment, a promise (Gen 3.14–15, 21)

Questions to take home:

1. What are the ‘fig leaves’ in your life — the things you use to cover up the parts of yourself you’re ashamed of?

They might be achievements, humour, keeping busy, social media performance, or just never letting people get too close.

2. Is there something — or someone — you’ve been hiding from? What would it look like to stop hiding, even one small step?

This might be about God, or it might be about a person in your life. Either way, what’s one honest conversation you’ve been avoiding?

3. God’s response to the worst moment in human history was a promise —

‘someone is coming.’ How does it change things to know the story isn’t over?

You don’t need to have the full answer yet. Just sit with it: what if the broken things in your life are not the final chapter?

Family Notices

1. No youth fellowship on 3 July or 10 July. Cell groups will resume from 17 July.
2. There will be a university fellowship after the service. We encourage all university students to stay and join us.
3. Our lovely artist Sarah is creating a large wave mural on the back photo wall. We invite everyone to contribute by making a handmade paper fish to add to the board. If you’re interested, please stay and join us after the service today.
4. We’re filming testimonies from our youth to celebrate our church’s 30th anniversary. If you’re approached for an interview, please spend a little time with us.
